Perkins and Thomas W. THE A. L. A.—WHAT IT IS AND DOES

The American Library Association is an organization of libraries, librarians, library trustees, and others interested in libraries. It was founded in 1876 as the immediate result of a three days' conference held in connection with the centennial exhibition in Philadelphia. It functions through a headquarters staff, through voluntary boards and committees, and through sections and round tables devoted to group interests. The work of the Association is centered at 520 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

International in character from the beginning, the Association today has representatives from every major country in the world among its 14,000 members. Most of its members live in Canada and the United States. The oldest and largest association of its kind, it is affiliated, formally or informally, with more than fifty other library associations in this country and abroad.

Approximately 600 members of the Association serve on its voluntary boards and committees, generously contributing their advice, experience, and time, thus enabling the headquarters staff to secure national and international perspective for the undertakings in which the Association is engaged.

Objectives

One of the chief objectives of the Association is complete and adequate library coverage for the United States and Canada. At present, roughly 50 million people in the two countries—most of them in rural areas—are without access to a public library.

Other objectives are:

To raise standards and promulgate ideals of library service

To assist libraries to operate with the utmost economy and efficiency

To promote studies which will tend to establish on a solid foundation the library's place in the governmental and social structure

To build for the future of library service by drawing into the profession some of the best qualified young men and women

To improve the status of librarianship:

By working to advance salary standards

By maintaining an effective personnel and placement service for employers and employees

By increasing professional knowledge through original research

By promoting adequate facilities for professional education

By working for the establishment of scholarships and fellowships

By providing a plan for retiring annuities for its members

The A. L. A. Bulletin serves as a monthly clearing house for news of the Association's activities on behalf of libraries and through reports of its committees, boards, and staff keeps the members up to date on such important matters as state legislation, new undertakings in adult education, certification requirements by states, the salary and employment situation, and successful library publicity. Annual conferences are held for the discussion of library topics, and the Proceedings are published as one issue of the Bulletin.

Through the Booklist libraries are kept in touch with current books particularly adapted to their needs and through the Subscription Books Bulletin with subscription sets currently sold which may or may not be useful and reliable purchases. The Journal of Documentary Reproduction keeps libraries, museums, and other institutions abreast of developments in microphotography and related techniques. More than 200 publications of the Association—professional tools for all types of libraries—help librarians in administering their libraries efficiently and economically.

Membership

Any person or institution interested in library work may become a member. The annual dues are three dollars for individuals who receive the Bulletin (not including the Handbook and Proceed- ings) and five dollars for those who receive the Bulletin complete, including the the Handbook and Proceedings.

Institutional membership is five dollars a year.

Contributing Members are persons, institutions, or organizations paying twenty-five dollars annually.

Sustaining Members are persons, institutions, or organizations paying one hundred dollars or more annually.

On payment of fifty dollars any individual member may become a life member.

All applications for membership and remittances for dues should be sent to the Membership Department, A. L. A. Headquarters. All members have the privilege of voting at meetings, have the advantage of special travel and hotel rates at conferences, and have their names and addresses listed in the Handbook.

Members visiting Chicago may have their mail sent to this address and are cordially invited to use the office as headquarters.

Sec. 27. By-laws may be adopted and amended by vote of the Association upon written report of the Executive Board or Council or of a special committee appointed by the Association to report thereon. Any by-law may be suspended by a three-fourths vote of those present and voting at a meeting of the Association held during an annual conference.

Amendments

Sec. 28. Nominations and Elections

Sec. 12 (a). At least six months prior to the annual conference of the Association the Executive Board shall appoint a committee of five, no one of whom shall be a member of the board, to nominate candidates for elective positions to be filled. They shall nominate candidates for the positions of president-elect, second vice president, and treasurer; also for two members of the Executive Board for terms of four years each, and for five members of the Council for terms of five years each, and to fill vacancies. No person shall be nominated who is not a member of the Association and whose consent to such nomination has not previously been obtained. The board shall also appoint a Committee on Election which shall have charge of the counting and tabulation of all votes cast at the regular election.

(b) The report of the Nominating Committee shall be published in the Bulletin at least three months prior to the annual conference of the Association, and nominations shall be placed before the Association on a printed ballot which shall be known as the "Official Ballot." The Nominating Committee shall also include on such ballot other nominations filed with the secretary by any fifteen members of the Association at least two months before the annual conference, provided written consent of these nominees be filed with such nominations.

(c) At least six weeks prior to the annual conference, the secretary shall mail a copy of the ballot to each member of the Association. Ballots shall be marked and returned to the secretary in sealed envelopes bearing on the outside the name and address of the member voting, together with the words, "Official Ballot."

(d) The secretary shall check on a list of members the names of all members whose votes were received. The Committee on Election shall thereupon provide for the counting and tabulation of the mail votes but shall not make public the result thereof until the votes taken at the annual conference shall have been also counted. Election shall be held at the annual conference, at which ballots (each enclosed in an envelope, sealed, and bearing the name and address of the member voting) may be cast by any member in attendance whose ballot by mail has not already been received and checked. The candidate receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. In case of a tie vote the successful candidate shall be determined by lot.

(e) The professional address of each nominee shall be given on the Official Ballot.

State Representation in Council

Sec. 13. Each state, provincial, territorial association (or any association covering two or more such geographical divisions not having separate associations) which shall, according to the provisions of the by-laws of the Association, become a chapter of the American Library Association shall be entitled to one delegate in the Council.

Each chapter shall name a Council delegate who must be a member of the Association.

Delegates before exercising the privileges of membership in the Council shall file with the secretary of the Association satisfactory credentials of qualification.

Chapters

Sec. 14. State, territorial, or regional chapters of the American Library Association may be established by the Council at the written request of ten members of the Association residing in the territory within which the chapter is desired.

A chapter may adopt its own constitution and by-laws, subject to the approval of the Council.

A chapter may admit members who are not members of the Association.

A member of the American Library Association who is also a member of more than one state or territorial chapter shall be accredited only to the chapter in the state in which he resides.

Local chapters may be authorized by the Council, but such chapters shall not have representation in the Council.

A chapter may be dissolved by the Council and shall be dissolved if the chapter becomes inactive or the membership becomes less than the required minimum.

Sections

Sec. 15. A petition for the establishment of a new section should state clearly the purposes of and the need for the proposed section. The petition should be signed by not less than fifty members of the American Library Association who are engaged in the work of the proposed section, and who thereby signify their intention of becoming charter members of the section. Before such a petition be granted by the Council, it shall be referred to the appropriate committee of the Council, which shall investigate and report to the Council the desirability of such section. The Council shall have power to discontinue a section when, in the opinion of the Council, the usefulness of that section has ceased.

Sec. 16. Sections may, if they so elect, charge annual dues, limit their own membership, issue publications, and in general carry on activities along the line of their own interest, accounting for their own funds solely to their own members. Only members of the American Library Association may be members of a section.

Sec. 17. No authority is granted any section to incur expense on behalf of the Association or to commit the Association as such by any declaration of policy.

Sec. 18. Provision shall be made by the Executive Board for sessions of the various sections at meetings of the Association, and the programs for the same shall be prepared by the officers of sections in consultation with the Program Committee. Any member of the Association may become a member of any section by complying with the requirements for membership, and attendance at section meetings may be limited to members of the section. No person may vote in any section unless a member of the same. The members of each section shall, at its final session of each annual conference, choose officers to serve until the close of the next annual conference.

Publications

Sec. 19. The Executive Board shall administer all publishing activities of the Association. It shall appoint annually an Editorial Committee of five members of the Association, who are not employees thereof, to advise upon material for publication. The members thereof shall serve until their successors are appointed. The Executive Board shall make an annual report to the Association on its publishing activities.

Committees

Sec. 20. There shall be a Committee on Committees, which, after conference with the president, shall recommend to the Executive Board the appointment or discontinuance of such committees, other than those provided by the Constitution and by-laws, as the needs of the Association may require. The Committee on Committees shall define the duties of all committees so to be appointed. All committees shall be appointed annually and their members shall hold office until their successors are appointed or the committee is discontinued.

Sec. 21. There shall be a standing committee of the Council consisting of four members, the chairman of which shall be the president of the Association, one member to be appointed each year by the president of the Association to serve for three years. The committee shall prepare outlines of matters for discussion at Council meetings, and shall mail them to the Council in advance of the meetings.

Sec. 22. The Executive Board shall at each annual conference of the Association appoint a committee of three on resolutions, which shall prepare and report to the Association suitable resolutions.

Votes by Correspondence

Sec. 23. Approval in writing by a majority of a board or committee shall have the force of a vote, provided not more than one member expresses dissent. If one member dissents, the vote shall not be effective until such member has had opportunity to communicate his views to the other members, and a second vote has been taken. If two members on the second mail vote dissent, the action shall fail. Each board and/or committee shall have authority to set the time limit during which the votes of its members will be recorded.

Awards, Jury on

Created by Council, December, 1937, on recommendation of the Committee on Awards as follows:

Whereas: Offers of awards have recently been made to the American Library Association by Mr. Joseph W. Lippincott and Mr. James T. White, the committee expresses deep appreciation for the motives which have inspired these offers. After full consideration of the two proposed awards the committee recommends:

1. That both of them be accepted for a trial period not to exceed three awards, when it is recommended that the entire question of awards be again considered.
2. That the awards be restricted to members of the American Library Association actively engaged in library work, with preferential consideration being given to younger librarians; that the Lippincott Award be given for notable professional achievement in any field of library activity; that the White Award be given for notable published professional writing.
3. That since Mr. Lippincott's offer includes a monetary award, the other part may well be a certificate, rather than a medal or a plaque.
4. That the two awards bear the names proposed by their donors, the Joseph W. Lippincott Award and the James Terry White Award.
5. That awards be given at the annual conference for a period closing at the time of the second preceding annual conference.
6. That awards be not divided between two projects, but that they may be shared by two or more librarians responsible for the same project.
7. That the Executive Board appoint a jury to make the awards, which jury shall be sufficiently large to include representatives from the various fields of library activity, such as the college, university, school, public, and special library fields.
8. That the jury be authorized to make no award in any given year when, in its opinion, no sufficiently outstanding achievement is brought to its attention.
9. That personal applications for awards be not accepted by the jury.

That a Board on Library Service to Children and Young People in Public Libraries and Schools, of six members, be appointed by the Executive Board.

That this board represent the various groups in the field actively concerned with library work with children and youth in public libraries and school libraries. (It is desirable that various points of view and types of experience be recognized by the appointment of librarians in active work with children and adolescents in public libraries; of librarians engaged in school work of various kinds; of an administrator of a public library recognized for progressive work with children or adolescents; and of a leader in the educational field who has shown marked interest in school library or reading problems. It is desirable, also, that the needs of boys and girls in rural areas be recognized in the choice of personnel for this committee.)

That members serve for six years, one member to change each year, except that in each of the years 1936, 1937, and 1938 one of the expiring terms be extended by three years.

That this board, as need may arise, be authorized to propose to the Executive Board a name or names of members of the A. L. A. whose experience qualifies them for the position, at A. L. A. SECTIONS OF THE ASSOCIATION

(The sections are sections of the American Library Association, and consequently membership in them is open only to A. L. A. members.)

By means of a system of sections the practical usefulness of the A. L. A. meetings has been considerably enlarged. The section meetings, while open to all, provide especially for the needs of each class of workers and afford more opportunity for the discussion of details. The general, or undivided, sessions are thus left free for subjects of general interest and the consideration of routine matter concerning the entire Association.

Twelve of these sections maintain a formal organization from year to year, and take under consideration questions relating more particularly to their own province. They are as follows:

AGRICULTURAL LIBRARIES SECTION

Created by Council, 1911. To improve in general the service of agricultural libraries; to bring together librarians of agricultural libraries and those interested in agricultural literature for the discussion of their mutual problems; to promote coöperation among agricultural libraries, particularly the libraries of land-grant colleges and experiment stations and the U. S. Department of Agriculture; and to encourage the publication of bibliographies and other library aids in the field of agriculture and the related sciences.

The section wishes to reach all librarians in land-grant colleges and experiment stations, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and other scientific institutions which are interested in the literature of agriculture in the broadest sense.

Officers for 1938-39: Permanent honorary chairman, Claribel Ruth Barnett, U. S. Department of Agriculture Library, Washington, D.C.; chairman, William Porter Kellam, D. H. Hill Library, State College, Raleigh, N.C.; secretary, Janice S. Brown, Bureau of Plant Industry Library, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C.

Rothrock for her work in organizing TVA library service. The selection is made by the Jury on Awards.*

NEWBERY MEDAL

The John Newbery Medal, awarded annually by the Section for Library Work with Children and the School Libraries Section* for the best contribution to juvenile literature, was established in 1921 by Frederic G. Melcher. In 1938, The White Stag by Kate Seredy became the eighteenth book to win the Newbery Medal.

OBERLY MEMORIAL AWARD

The Oberly Memorial Award, consisting of the income from a fund of $1000 contributed by colleagues of Eunice Rockwood Oberly, late librarian of the Bureau of Plant Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, is given every second year to the compiler of the best bibliography on agriculture or the natural sciences. The fund was turned over to the trustees of the A. L. A. endowment funds in 1923. In 1937, the recipient selected by the Oberly Memorial Fund Committee* was Victor A. ENDOWMENT FUNDS

There are six endowment funds, the General Endowment Fund, the Carnegie Fund, the Carnegie Corporation Endowment Fund, the James L. Whitney Fund, the Oberly Memorial Fund, and the Sarah C. N. Bogle Memorial Fund. All these funds are under the control of the trustees, and the cash and securities are on deposit at the First National Bank of Chicago.

The General Endowment Fund capital account is increased from year to year by receipts from life memberships.

The Carnegie Corporation Endowment Fund was created by the Carnegie Corporation of New York under its Resolution B-367, entitled "Ten-Year Program in Library Service."

Income from both the General Endowment and Carnegie Corporation Endowment funds can be used for any of the general activities of the Association.

The Carnegie Fund was created in 1902 by a gift of $100,000 from Andrew Carnegie. The income is used "for the preparation and publication of reading lists, indexes, and other bibliographical aids" which are thought to be "specially useful in circulating libraries."

The capital account of the James L. Whitney Fund is being increased slowly under the terms of the will and the interest is added to the principal. It is hoped that the fund may increase so that it will eventually yield an income which will be of assistance in the preparation of bibliographical aids for research workers. Its use is not limited, however, to this particular purpose.

The Oberly Memorial Fund, originally a sum of $1000 contributed by colleagues of Eunice Rockwood Oberly, late librarian of the Bureau of Plant Industry, the United States Department of Agriculture, was turned over to the trustees of endowment funds in 1923, the income to be used biennially as an award to the compiler of the best bibliography on agriculture or the natural sciences.

Income from the Sarah C. N. Bogle Memorial Fund will be used to support an international scholarship, enabling librarians of the United States and Canada to study abroad and foreign librarians to study in this country or Canada.

Through a Committee on Education for Law Librarianship, the A. A. L. L. made a study of the qualifications of law librarians and recommended that a course in law library administration be given in some approved school of library service. (See Law Library Journal 29:199-222.) A course in law library administration was offered in the 1937 and 1938 summer sessions at Columbia University School of Library Service. The association is coöperating with the American Bar Association in a study of the problems of duplication of law books and in other matters of mutual interest. It is also coöperating through its individual members and committees with the Association of American Law Schools. In an effort to raise the standards for law librarians and to make possible an improved library service in the law schools, its Committee on Coöperation with the Association of American Law Schools recommended that each member school be required to have a librarian whose major interest is the library itself and whose principal activities are devoted to the management and operation of a law library. (See Law Library Journal 29:138-41.) This recommendation of the American Association of Law Libraries was adopted by the Association of American Law Schools at the annual meeting held in Chicago, December, 1937. (See Law Library Journal 31:13-14.)

An A. A. L. L. Book and Periodical Exchange has been established at the University of California under the direction of Thomas S. Dabagh, law librarian. (See Law Library Journal 31:222-23, September, 1938.) Librarians may send to Mr. Dabagh lists of duplicate books and periodicals for exchange, as well as their lists of wants. They will then be notified of the libraries which desire the items offered for exchange and which can supply the wanted items. The Book and Periodical Exchange will act as a clearing house and the actual exchanges will be made between the individual libraries.

HONOR ROLL OF ATTENDANCE AT CONFERENCES, 1876-1938

Compiled by Mrs. Henry James Carr

For earlier rolls, and other statistics, see Library Journal, 1892 conference, p. 24; vol. 23, pp. 238-39; and Handbooks.

Attendance upon ten conferences is the minimum number to be listed on the Honor Roll.

There is no member now listed who attended a conference previous to 1883.

Dr. E. C. Richardson joined A. L. A. 1880, number 395; Mrs. Henry James Carr, 1882, number 448; Dr. F. P. Hill, 1883, number 459; and these three attended their first conference at Buffalo, 1883.

The oldest membership in the A. L. A. is held by Ellen Gale, of Rock Island, Illinois, who joined in 1879, number 211. Miss Gale has attended seven conferences, the first in 1886.

Up to, and including 1926, a list of those attending a conference was printed in the volume of Proceedings. In 1929, that list was printed in Conference Chronicle published at the conference.

In 1930, Cora M. Beatty, membership secretary of the American Library Association, devised the very satisfactory method that has since been used, that of placing a symbol (†) in the Handbook in front of the name of each member who attended the conference of that year.

There are 492 listed on the Honor Roll of 1938, of whom 85 are life members.

The following have attended the number of conferences indicated:

PUBLICATIONS OF THE AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

520 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago

THE publishing activity of the American Library Association is a non-profit, coöperative enterprise conducted for libraries and in the interest of library progress. An endowment fund of $100,000 received from Mr. Andrew Carnegie in 1902 yields an income of about $4,000 a year, which is applied to the preparation of the Booklist. Publications are priced to cover only manufacturing and distribution costs and, for that reason, discounts are not possible.

All publications are in paper covers unless otherwise indicated. Those of 1938 or 1939 are marked with an asterisk (*).

The Association prepays postage and express within the United States. Remittance should accompany orders for less than 50 cents. Stamps are acceptable.

The BOOKLIST

A Guide to New Books

HUNDREDS of new books—fiction, non-fiction, and children's books—are published every month. Each year 10,000 or more new titles and new editions compete for the attention of librarians, teachers, school administrators, and other book buyers.

How can you know which books to buy?

Twice each month, The BOOKLIST—with the aid of specialists in several fields—selects 100-125 new books from the hundreds submitted for review. Each title is evaluated and briefly described and complete buying and cataloging information is provided.

The BOOKLIST, published since 1905, is designed especially to help libraries in the selection of new books. Each issue contains brief notes on new books in philosophy, religion, social sciences, natural science, useful arts, fine arts, literature, history, travel, biography, fiction, and children's books.

A selection of about fifteen books likely to be of widest general use in libraries appears as the Small Library List in each issue. The list of Books for Young People, intended to aid in introducing young people to the use of adult books, is another useful feature.

A selection of new editions, reprints, and series is included once a month; free and inexpensive material is listed in nearly every issue; and lists of government documents and books in foreign languages and in special subjects appear several times a year.

HELPING THE READER TOWARD SELF-EDUCATION

By John Chancellor, A.L.A. Adult Education Specialist; Miriam D. Tompkins, Asst. Professor, School of Library Science, Columbia University; and Hazel I. Mudway, Director, Readers Advisory Service, Milwaukee Public Library

THE first requisite to successful work in reader guidance is not large staff, nor funds, nor time, nor other material resources, but conviction that the public library should be and can be the most important agency in the community for informal self-education.

"This book is not offered as a collection of aids or specifications . . . but rather as a gleaning from experience . . . which seems applicable in any well-staffed library, large or small."—Introduction.

Part I answers briefly the "how-to-do-it" questions often asked concerning advisory service—what is involved, how is it conducted, how can small libraries simplify the service and keep it effective.

Part II, with its bibliographies, guides the librarian through studies on: who use public libraries, what is adult education, what is the library's role, what subjects interest readers, readability and remedial reading.

Part III suggests books which will give the librarian a background of sympathetic understanding of the patron.

Part IV summarizes what has been learned about readability and provides simple directions for judging the readability of a book.

Each of the four parts provides a guide to selected readings in which the librarian can carry further his own study of the problems.
